

1410 Riverview Drive, Toms Brook, VA 22660
 Property can be accessed from Hahn Lane (653) north of Toms Brook or from Creek Rd (653) in the center of town.
 Hahn's Lane is less "windy". You will see the big red barn from Riverview which overlooks the property.
 From Creek Rd, you will know you are there at the big left bend in the road and the line of large box woods.
 See the aerial view - it shows the buildings.

1410 Riverview Drive, Toms Brook, VA 22660 - Aerial view with approximate boundaries outlined. Acreage outlined is based on a free-hand outline; actual acreage is approximately 15.94 acres. The "south" boundary of the property is just south of the banks of the waterway - Toms Brook - and runs the same way as the creek turns North and meets the Shenandoah River. A right-of-way runs along the NW property line from Riverview Drive to the bridge that crosses the Shenandoah to provide access to a property on the other side. This is not a public-use route. The property is bounded by the Shenandoah on the NE leg.
